

Mr. of Burlington moves to further amend amendment 121 of H 4600 by striking out text in its entirety and inserting in place thereof the following:-

SECTION 27A. There shall be established a special commission to investigate the fiscal, social, economic and judicial issues related to the adoption of capital punishment in the commonwealth. Said commission shall consist of the attorney general, the secretary of the executive office of public safety, the chief justice of the supreme judicial court and the commissioner of the department correction. Said commission shall investigate, without limitation, the fiscal, social, judicial, and economic impact of instituting capital punishment including the impact of capital punishment on the state's economy and revenue cost to the commonwealth.
